Watauga High School rode a 33-21 fourth quarter surge to beat Mountain Heritage 82-78. Watauga used timely shooting and solid free throw shooting to hold off a furious last minute comeback staged by the Cougars, who connected on 12 three pointers in the game. Michael Fender paced the Cougars with 18 points, while John Cannon added 16 and Steven Wilson connected for 15 for Mountain Heritage whose record fell to 1-1.
