	1st Qt	2nd Qt	3rd Qt	4th QT	Final
Thomas Jefferson	6	2	8	16	32
Mountain Heritage	19	22	36	23	100

Trevin Miller connected on a three point shot in the last 20 seconds of the game enabling Mountain Heritage to reach the century mark and close a convincing 100-32 victory over Thomas Jefferson. The Cougars on the strength of Steven Wilson's 13 points in the first quarter marched out to a 19-6 lead and never looked back. Wilson led all scorers with 21 points followed by Will McCurry's 15 and 14 from Michael Fender. A total of six Cougars scored in double figures. Mountain Heritage displayed team basketball the whole game marked by numerous passes to teammates for better shots. The highlight of this facet was a terrific pass from Fender to John Cannon followed by a tremendous slam dunk, electrifying the crowd. The Cougars also forced 20 turnovers including 14 steals as they upped their record to (1-0, 5-2) for the season. Their next game will be at the Pisgah Tournament to be played on December 29 and 30 in Canton.
