Alex Biggerstaff scored 19 points to lead a balanced Mountain Heritage team over Thomas Jefferson Tuesday 84-30 in the conference opener. The Cougars raced out to an 18-5 first quarter lead and never looked back on their way to victory. They combined balanced scoring with solid defense and rebounding in a total team effort, which included significant contributions from several of the substitutes. Matthew Kardulis, who added 14 points, also recorded eight steals and made four consecutive break away lay ups in the fourth quarter. John Cannon added 13 points along with several blocks and rebounds. Jacob Neill paced the Cougars with nine rebounds to go with eight points. The Cougars upped their record to 4-1 overall and 1-0 in the conference. Mountain Heritage hosts Mitchell Friday night in what promises to be an exciting game from a very talented Mountaineer team.
