Mountain Heritage scored 12 straight points in the first quarter to break a 7-7 tie and sealed the win with a late surge in beating Hendersonville 78-61 Tuesday night. After the first quarter surge, the Bearcats and Cougars played even, with Hendersonville working the lead down to as few as eight points utilizing a trapping press. Each time it seemed that the Bearcats would reduce the Heritage lead to within striking distance, the Cougars would break the press or score several consectuive baskets to provide the final margin of victory. John Cannon led the Cougars with 23 points, including 14 in the second half. Steven Wilson added 21. Both Cannon and Wilson had 10 rebounds. Alex Biggerstaff added 14 points in the win. Matthew Kardulis dished off 12 assists as well, but in the end everyone contributed in a total team win. The Cougars improved their record to 6-0 in conference and 9-1 overall. Thursday, the Cougars travel to play Christ School, who have been ranked in the top ten in the entire country this year in what promises to be a challenging game for Heritage.
