Mountain Heritage suffered their first loss of the 2009-2010 season to the Watauga Pioneers in the championship game of the Pioneer Holiday Classis Wednesday night. The game was close from the onset, but the Cougars maintained the lead through out the game, although Watauga managed to tie the game on several occasions during regulation. After Matthew Kardulis made three free throws in the closing minutes of regulation, Mountain Heritage held a three point lead with ten seconds to go. After a Watauga time out, guard Casey Quinn made a long three point shot that banked in as time ran down to tie the game at the end of regulation. The Pioneers then spent the overtime making free throws that provided the final margin. As shown by the wide discrepancy in free throw attempts, the Cougars experienced significant foul troubles as they had the night before, but Watauga made them pay by connecting 73% of their free throws. The foul situation affected the overtime because John Cannon and Jacob Neill both fouled out in regulation and two other starters were playing with four fouls. The Cougars again featured a balanced scoring effort with Steven Wilson pacing the team with 16 points. Austin Swann added 15, Alex Biggerstaff added 14, and Cannon put in 12. Wilson and Cannon were also named all tournament players. The Cougars (3-1) boys and JV boys play a make up game against North Buncombe on Saturday. Conference play starts Tuesday when they travel to Thomas Jefferson
